

Illinois Women Participants in Suffrage Parade; This State Was Well Represented in Washington.

[Photographed for "The Tribune" Monday afternoon.]

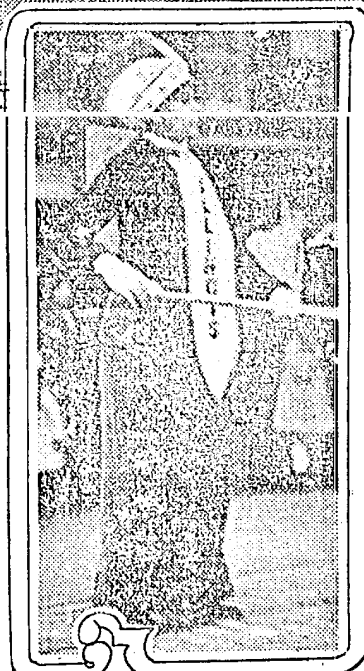

Forming in Line Near Capitol.

From Left to Right
Virginia Brooks, "Mrs." Belle
Squire, Mrs. Ida Wells Barnett

The suffragists from Illinois had some conferences regarding the presence of a negro woman—Mrs. Ida Wells Barnett—in their ranks during the Monday parade. "Mrs." Belle Squire and Miss Virginia Brooks took Mrs. Barnett (metaphorically) under their wing, and the photograph shows the trio grouped together.

Mrs. George S. Welles.
